Run and shoot offense madden 21

I have a team that runs the Run and Shoot scheme, and a second team that runs the Spread scheme. Looking through all the playbooks none of them specifically states they are for any of those violations. I've read that the Patriots playbook is best for passing, but the description says it's West Coast based. What playbooks should I use? There are skill differences between NFL teams, but almost every team has at least a few superstars. These players can change games, but they need a playbook that puts them in the best position to do so. Offensive Playbooks. When in possession, these are the most destructive set of plays. Best Passing Playbook – New England Patriots. Consistently one of the best playbooks every Madden, this year's edition is no different. I Form Tight is the best running formation, but you choose this playbook for the variety of Gun formations. Gun Split Close Pats is the best Gun Split Close in the game due to some unique pieces that are not available elsewhere. Screens seemed to be set for Madden 21, so watch out for Gun Ace Slot Offset. Best Running Playbook – Las Vegas Raiders. Not an out and off running playbook, but it's pretty much the best in the game and running is a decent percentage of that. This jack-of-all-trades playbook has immense depth. The Singleback and I Form are both great among centre formations to run the ball. Stretch plays are available in multiple types of formation to get the defense on its heels. Best Balanced Playbook - New Orleans Saints. The Saints playbook, also known as the West Coast alternative, is the most unique playbook outside of custom options. Factoring in numerous trick plays devised by Sean Payton, it has many surprises for the defense and mixes the run with passing attacks. Many Singleback options, with the unique Single Double North offering versatility that the other playbooks don't offer. I Form and Strong Close helps run the ball, but the key is the Near and Far formations. These are not available anywhere else and can be in the redzone. Finally, Gun Bunch in this playbook is better than anywhere else. If you want to run a slippery west coast pass attack - this is for you. Defensive Playbooks. You far without a strong defense - here are the teams that play best. Best 4-3 Playbook - San Francisco 49ers. One of the core 4-3 playbooks, the 49ers plays are great for teams with small and fast DE's like Nick Bosa. This playbook comes with additional formations for stacking against the run as 46 and 5-2. These are particularly strong in short yardage situations and on the goal line. Having the option of Dime and Dollar is an embarrassment of wealth when it comes to increasing the number of defensive backs on the field. Best 3-4 Playbook - Kansas City Chiefs. A playbook that actually has the option of 3-4 and 4-3 is always a plus. And the Chiefs have the staff to play both, so watch out if you use this with another team. Nickel 3-3-5 gives a great mix of coverage and pass rush that is useful in trying to protect a lead from a pass heavy opponent. Dollar is another great option for pass defense. While the standard 3-4 is great at stopping the run. Best Versatile Defensive Playbook - New York Jets. Unlike previous Maddens, there are a handful of Madden 21 playbooks that give the option of 3-4 and 4-3 versatility. Honorable mention for the Giants, Patriots and Lions, but we've gone with Jets playbook. It has a lot of variety in any formation with the ability to jump between 3-4 and 4-3. It has the excellent Nickel 3-3-5 Will for more obvious passing plays. Review!
